KENNY LOGGINS

Kenny Loggins has sold more than 25 million albums worldwide and has won two Grammy Awards. His songs have left their musical imprint on "the soundtrack of our lives." Over the last four decades, his chart-topping songs have included "This Is It," "I'm Alright," "Danger Zone," and the iconic "Footloose," which recently surpassed one billion streams on Spotify. In addition to his string of successful recordings, both solo and as a member of the famed duo Loggins & Messina, Loggins became the first major rock star to dedicate himself to recording music for children and families. His album Return to Pooh Corner remains the best-selling children's album of the last 20 years.

PRESENTING THE KEEP MEMORY ALIVE
COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP AWARD

Michael S. Meldman is the Chairman and Founder of luxury real estate development firm Discovery Land Company. Under Meldman's leadership since its founding in 1994, Discovery has built more than 35 private luxury communities worldwide, setting new standards for luxury living with championship golf courses, family-oriented world-class amenities, and unparalleled experiences set against backdrops of extraordinary natural beauty. Additionally, Meldman also established the Discovery Land Company Foundation, which has contributed more than $17.6 Million to numerous local community organizations supporting families, education, and community engagement since its inception in 2007.

MICHAEL S. MELDMAN

In addition to being recognized as an iconic real estate developer, Meldman actively invests in leading lifestyle brands: he co-founded iconic spirits brand Casamigos, which was later sold to Diageo for $1 Billion; was a founding investor in the luxury athleisure brand Vuori; and has invested in many other major brands in the golf, apparel, and wellness consumer goods spaces. In 2024, Meldman became part owner of the NFL's Las Vegas Raiders. In his free time, Meldman enjoys spending time with his three sons – Hunter, Will, and Max – who he credits as his proudest achievements.

A true family affair – featuring celebrity chefs along with their sons for an unforgettable culinary experience.

Our Power of Love chefs this year are Wolfgang Puck & Byron Lazaroff Puck of the famed Spago, and Charlie Palmer & Reed Palmer of the famed Charlie Palmer Steak & Dry Creek Kitchen in Healdsburg.

CULINARY MASTERS

Together, these father and son duos promise to guide your palate on a memorable culinary journey at the Power of Love gala.

Each course will be thoughtfully paired with wines hand-selected by master sommeliers from Southern Glazer's Beverage Company.

To end the evening on a sweet note, the MGM Grand Pastry Team will share dazzling Instagram-worthy desserts.

YOUR SUPPORT IS IMPACTFUL

TOGETHER WE CAN FIND A CURE

WHO WE ARE

Built on the power of Camille, Larry, and The Ruvo Family's promise, Keep Memory Alive, through Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health, aims to find, fund, and facilitate the most effective and innovative research, treatment, and educational support programming for patients and their families affected by brain disorders.

WHAT WE DO

We provide education, treatment, research, and support services to help patients and families navigate these challenges and maximize quality of life while living with brain disease.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

For three decades, Power of Love® galas have raised significant funds to continue this important work. Buy a seat, table, or ad, and bid on auction items because every investment makes a big impact. You are the Power of Love behind our promise.

WHY

Together, as a community, we are directly impacting and improving the lives of your family, friends, and neighbors. What happens in Las Vegas at Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health is benefiting the rest of the world.
